News Release

National Trails Day Celebration Is Saturday, June 2nd

(Clearfield, Utah) – Officials in five cities as well as the Davis County Health Department are partnering to celebrate National Trails Day with a free, family fun event focused around Super Heroes. The cities of Clearfield, Clinton, Farmington, Kaysville, and Layton are holding their trail-oriented events for all to explore and discover the Denver & Rio Grande Western (D&RGW) Rail Trail on Saturday, June 2, 2012.

The walking trail follows the old D&RGW Railroad connecting five cities in Davis County and extending more than 14 miles. The D&RGW Rail Trail event begins at 10 a.m. and continues with activities until noon.

To highlight the recreational advantages of the trail, event organizers stress that everyone is welcome to attend: runners, joggers, walkers, bikers, rollerbladers, and skateboarders. Bring the entire family, even dogs (as long as they are on a leash), to enjoy the trail, win prizes, and play games.

Rain or shine, come and visit a section or the entire trail. Each city will host various activities such as bicycle safety, fishing, scavenger hunts, geocaching, or contest that will help to discover your inner super hero.

City check-in points for the trail are located at:

- Clearfield City (information available at 801-525-2790)
Steed Park, 300 N. 1000 W.
